ANNOUNCEMENTS

- ~ Communion will be next Sunday.
- ~ Adult Sunday School has concluded its current study of Joseph. The Adult Sunday School Class will reconvene in the fall.
- ~ From Sylvan Acres:
Under the excellent guidance of the Sylvan Board, with Rob Filgate as chair, a new director (Calley Erickson) has been appointed. Calley and Carrie have led several areas in our family of churches, including, over the last few years, Mill Creek (a CBWC Camp near Pincher Creek, Alta.)
- ~ The church picnic is today following the morning worship service. The picnic will be held on the North Lawn again this year. We will be sharing a picnic-style potluck lunch and coffee, tea juice and ice cream are supplied. After lunch there will be games and fun activities for all ages, so we encourage everyone to make an effort to stay for this event and have a great time of fellowship, even if you can’t play the games.
- ~ Executive Minister Reappointed
The Board of Directors of Canadian Baptists of Western Canada is very pleased to announce they have reappointed Jeremy Bell as Executive Minister for another 5 years. His second term will extend to June, 2015.

“Jeremy was hired 5 years ago because he has a great ability to dream outside the box. He has great visioning skills,” said Jan Paasuke, the Board Chair. “Over the past 5 years, he has put many new initiatives into play, such as Listening Sessions, urban camping and local short-term missions as something separate from CBM. He has shown he has the ability to move us in a different direction and be more effective in the future.”

~ Director of Ministry Appointed

Jeremy Bell, Executive Minister of Canadian Baptists of Western Canada, is pleased to announce the appointment of Bob Webber as Director of Ministry, effective June 1, 2010. As Director of Ministry, Bob will coordinate more than 50 Ministry networks, denominational committees, Camp Boards and Board Committees of the CBWC on behalf of the Executive Minister.

TOUCH OUR HEARTS

Touch our hearts, renew our minds,
To Your gracious truth,
That in our darkness You are light,
Our hope is found in You.
(repeat from beginning)
Our hope is found in You.

BLESS THE LORD

Bless the Lord, my soul,
and bless God's holy name.
Bless the Lord, my soul,
who leads me into life.

LORD JESUS, OF YOU I WILL SING

1. Lord Jesus, of You I will sing as I journey,
I'll tell all my friends about You wherever I go;
You alone are man's life, and his peace and his love:
Lord Jesus, of You I will sing as I journey.
2. Lord Jesus, I'll praise You as long as I journey.
May all of my joy be a faithful reflection of You.
May the earth and the sea and the sky join my song:
Lord Jesus, I'll praise You as long as I journey.
3. As long as I live, Jesus make me Your servant:
To carry Your cross
and to share all Your burdens and tears,
For You save me by giving Your body and blood.
As long as I live, Jesus make me Your servant.
4. I fear in the dark and the doubt of my journey.
But courage will come with the sound of Your steps by my side.
And with all of the family You saved by Your love,
We'll sing to Your dawn at the end of our journey.

Kingdom Quote:

So now, perhaps the dimensions of the message of Jesus becomes clearer and clearer. Jesus forms a movement of people who trust him and believe his message. They believe that they don't have to wait for this or that to happen, but rather that they can begin living in a new and better way now, a way of life Jesus conveys by the pregnant phrase kingdom of God. Life for them now is about an interactive relationship - reconciled to God, reconciled to one another - and so they see their entire lives as an opportunity to make the beautiful music of God's kingdom so that more and more people will be drawn into it, so that the world will be changed by their growing influence. Everyone can have a role in this expanding kingdom-women and men, masters and servants, powerful and powerless, old and young, urban and rural, white collar and blue collar, previously religious and previously irreligious. Each life can add beauty to the message of Jesus. Each person can be an agent of the kingdom.
