A reliquary containing relics of St. Vladimir, Great Prince of Kiev and Equal to the Apostles, arrives in Victoria at All Saints of Alaska Orthodox Church on Monday, September 20 at 3pm. This is an historic event, as it is the first time these relics have been blessed to travel outside Ukraine. Victoria is the first stop on their journey across Canada. Vladimir was a 10th century pagan ruler in the Kievan Rus – present-day Belarus and Ukraine - who sent emissaries abroad to discover the true faith. The mission resulted in his conversion to Orthodox Christianity in 988, and subsequently all his subjects, then all of Russia and Ukraine. He is venerated as a saint in Orthodox, Roman Catholic, Anglican and Lutheran faith traditions.

Everyone is welcome, the church will be open to visitors from 3 pm - 9pm Monday and 10 am - 1 pm Tuesday with an evening service at All Saints of Alaska Orthodox Church, 5363 Hamsterly Road across from Elk Lake, on Monday, September 20 at 7 pm.

WE ADORE YOU, LORD JESUS CHRIST

(Hum) We adore You, Lord Jesus Christ.

YES, LORD, YES

I'll say yes, Lord, yes, to Your will and to Your way.
I'll say yes, Lord, yes; I will trust You and obey.
When Your Spirit speaks to me,
With my whole heart I'll agree
And my answer will be yes, Lord, yes.
